“A spiritually
transformative odyssey,”

says MARGARET FLANAGAN in Booklist.

“At the heart of this narrative, Paulo, profoundly disillusioned by contemporary reality, plagued by inner conflict, and losing faith in himself and the world he inhabits, sets off on a highly personal quest that defies time and space. Traveling around the world, he journeys back into his own reincarnations, understanding that his ‘path is reflected in the eyes of others, and that if I want to find myself, I need that map.’ Although he encounters a diversity of significant friends along the way, his reconnection with a woman he loved and heartlessly betrayed over 500 years ago is the key to his reawakening and redemption...”

Translated from the Portuguese by Margaret Jull Costa.
