

“A LOVE LETTER TO HUMANITY, CIVILIZATION, AND THE WORLD WE KNOW.”

—Christie Olson Day, Gallery Bookshop (CA)

AN INDIE NEXT PICK

“I THINK THIS ONE IS REALLY GOING TO GO PLACES...”

Station Eleven scared me half to death but was so compelling, so fearlessly imagined, that I wouldn't have put it down for anything.”

—Ann Patchett, Parnassus Books (TN)

“A HARROWINGLY BEAUTIFUL TALE

of what civilization was, what remains, and what might be.”

—Greg Berry, Elliott Bay Book Company (WA)

“READ THIS BOOK, PEOPLE!!!”

—Brienne Sperber, The Strand (NY)

“ASTONISHING...” Every bit as powerful as Cormac McCarthy's The Road. I loved it and cannot wait to put it in the hands of all the book lovers I know.”

—Korje Guttormsen, Books Inc (CA)

“THIS WAS A GREAT ONE!”

—Mary McBride, Rainy Day Books (KS)

STATION ELEVEN EMILY ST. JOHN MANDEL

Published by Knopf

#STATION11

“A LYRICAL PAEAN TO LIFE
AS WE NOW KNOW IT.”

—Betsy Burton, The King's English (UT)

AN INDIE NEXT PICK

“A BEAUTIFUL AND COMPELLING REQUIEM

to the world and a meditation on what we would really miss.”

—Darwin Ellis, Books on the Common (CT)

“ENTRANCING”

—Daniel Goldin, Boswell Book Company (WI)

“RICH, MOVING, SUSPENSEFUL

...Sure to make her a household name.”

—Robert Sindelar, Third Place Books (WA)

“I COULDN'T STOP
TURNING THE PAGES.

This is pretty brilliant stuff.” —Bob Deloria, Books Inc (CA)

“BEAUTIFULLY WRITTEN AND IMPOSSIBLE TO PUT DOWN.

...it transports you completely to another reality
while secretly expanding your understanding of this one.” —Lizzy Acker, Powell's Books (OR)

“ONE OF MY FAVORITE BOOKS THIS YEAR...”

This book will stay with me for quite some time. Wow!”

—Emily Johnson, Magers & Quinn Booksellers (MN)

STATION ELEVEN
EMILY ST. JOHN MANDEL